Revised Common Lectionary Old Testament Readings – Track One

Scripture: Acts 5:27-32

Background

Easter is one big celebration! It is a time for us to remember the Resurrection and that Jesus Christ our Lord is not dead but he is alive! We do it up big on Easter Sunday, but sometimes it is easy for us to forget that the celebration keeps going right up to Pentecost. It is also a time of year when we hope for Spring, if it has not already taken root in our neighborhood. We long for new life of plants and animals. It is a time for us to remember how special the gift of life is.

A Notation for This Week's Gospel

Today we find Peter & the apostles preaching the Good News of Jesus Christ and his resurrection. It is not always easy to do something you know is right. This is especially true when you face peer pressure or punishment. Today's lesson invites us to think about how we might find strength to do the right thing, even when it is hard.

Theme: God is our Strength

Before Class: Set paper, markers, crayons, colored pencils, or other craft supplies out for use in your activity.

Beginning: As students gather: Good morning everyone and Happy Easter! It is so good to have you with us this morning. Today we are going to hear a story about how Saint Peter and the apostles did what God asked them to do, even when it was not popular. Have you ever had a time when you had a choice to make, between what you knew was right and what you knew was wrong? Allow students to share briefly (staying up past bedtime, eating cookies before dinner, etc.)

Opening Prayer: God, sometimes it is hard to know what is the right thing to do. Thank you for giving us parents, teachers and friends who help us to make good choices. Amen.

The Story: Acts 5:27-32

Read the story to the children or invite the children to read the script (found at the end of the lesson) as narrator, high priest, Peter and the apostles.

When the temple police had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

Reflection Questions:

- I wonder why the people did not want Saint Peter and the apostles to teach about Jesus? (they were afraid, they did not believe, etc.)
- How did Saint Peter and the apostles answer? (said must obey God)
- Were they alone in doing what they were doing? (No, they had the Holy Spirit)
- Does God ask us to do anything? (Yes, be loving, kind, forgiving and to work for justice)
- Are we all alone in doing these things? (No, we too have the Holy Spirit)

Activity:

Those were some really good answers. Why don't we create something that will help us remember that we are not alone in doing what is right, loving and kind. Instruct students to use the materials provided to make something that will help them or someone else remember that they can point people to Jesus and his love. Prompt them to use one of their answers from above or something else.

Getting Closure: Wow, these are some really great projects! (If time allows, have students share their projects with the class). Do you think that this week you might be able to show God's love to someone? How? (Allow students to share their answers) Jesus loves us and we get to be signs of that love!

Closing Prayer: Jesus, thank you for giving us examples of how we are not alone in making the right choice. Help us to share your love this week with our family, friends and others we meet. Amen.
